

WARRIOR WELLNESS
INTERVENTIONAL PAIN MANAGEMENT,
HORMONE THERAPY, REGENERATIVE
& AESTHETIC MEDICINE

Policies:

Prescriptions:

Ariel Hurtado, M.D., and Megan Hurtado, N.P., do not prescribe or manage any narcotics or opiates. If you are currently receiving medications from other health care providers we will gladly work closely with them.

Insurance:

Some procedures offered by Warrior Wellness will not be covered by insurance. You will be required to pay for the procedure before it is performed. We will be happy to submit a claim to insurance after your procedure is performed. There are no guarantees that insurance will cover any or all of your medical visits.

Appointment/Procedure Policy:

Please arrive on time for all appointments and procedures.

Arriving late delays not only your appointment but that of our other patients.

Warrior Wellness has the right to reschedule your appointment if we feel that you would not receive the full value of your appointment that day, or if you arrive later than 15 minutes of your scheduled appointment time.

Furthermore, if you are more than halfway through your appointment time and are barely arriving, your appointment will be canceled, and our cancellation policy will take effect.

Cancellation-No-Show-Rescheduling Policy:

Warrior Wellness Hurtado, M.D. & Hurtado, N.P., has a 48-hour cancellation-no-show-rescheduling policy.

A $125* cancellation-no-show-rescheduling fee for a regular appointment and a $250* cancellation-no-show-rescheduling fee for any procedure will be charged to the credit card on file.

This policy is in place to respect the time of our clinicians, patients, and staff.

Appointments/Procedures that are not canceled or rescheduled within 48 hours can be difficult to fill.

Any patient that cancels, no-shows, or reschedules within 48 hours of his/her appointment/procedure date and time will result in a ($125*/$250*) fee to the credit card on file.

We kindly ask that you respect our medical providers' time as they schedule out weeks to months in advance.

Warrior Wellness reserves the right to modify our fees at any time*
